

PACHAS PAJAMAS

Meal Time Will Never Be the Same!

In Foodlandia, Pacha and her younger brother Paco visit a dreamworld where everything is made out of food. There are white bread neighborhoods and wheat bread neighborhoods, some over-salted and others sugar-coated. The evil emperor Hamburgoni and his minion fries have lanced the cantaloupe sun which is changing the climate. Popsicle mountain is melting and broccoli forest has been charred.

Pacha infiltrates Hamburgoni's hidden hamlet posing as one of his many chefs. As she investigates the supply chain for Hamburgoni's Food Factory, she discovers his plan for a hostile takeover of the World Seed Bank, a vault containing the world's sacred seeds. The steward of the bank, Dr. Goldenberry, and Paco hack into Harburgoni's hamlet to remotely open doors and navigate for Pacha. When they lose contact, Paco sets out to find his big sis...

Can Pacha and Paco "save our seeds" and put Hamburgoni on the grill in time for breakfast?
